

The American Name Society Annual Conference

Portland, Oregon January 8-11, 2015

2nd Official Call for Papers

The American Name Society (ANS), the oldest scholarly society devoted to the study of names in the United States, is now inviting proposals for papers for its next annual conference. The 2015 proceedings will be held in conjunction with the Linguistic Society of America (LSA) in Portland, Oregon. Papers in any area of onomastic research are welcome.

Proposals should include a précis of up to 500 words as well as a 100-word abstract for publication in the LSA and ANS programs. The deadline for receipt of proposals is July 1, 2014. However, presenters who may need additional time to secure international payments and travel visas to the United States are urged to submit their proposal as soon as possible.

Please send proposals by e-mail attachment in a .doc or .docx format to Dr. I.M. Nick at mavi.yaz@web.de. For organizational purposes, please include "ANS Proposal" in the subject line. All proposals will be subject to blind review. Official notification of proposal acceptances will be sent on or before August 31, 2014. All authors whose papers have been accepted must be a current member of the ANS and register for both the ANS and the LSA. Please feel free to contact Dr. I. M. Nick at the above address if you should have any questions.

For information about the American Name Society see www.wtsn.binghamton.edu/ANS/
For information concerning the Linguistic Society of America see www.lsadc.org

Deadline for proposals: July 1, 2014

Please note: the LSA has officially changed the venue for this event from San Francisco and Portland, Oregon.